On today's date at 1040 hours, the complainant, [REDACTED] came to the Public Safety Building to sign an affidavit in support of the allegations that he made on 02 SEP 2104. [REDACTED] stated that as he was driving the vehicle that he and his passenger, [REDACTED] were in, were stopped by Officer ALI for no apparent reason. [REDACTED] stated that the 2 officer came up to his vehicle and opened the doors and placed him and the passenger in handcuffs. [REDACTED] stated that after the name check was done, the other officer had found on the ground next to where he was stopped, an item that looked like cannabis on the passenger side of his car. [REDACTED] then stated that Officer ALI asked to be supplied with a gun so that the vehicle would not be impounded. After [REDACTED] and his passenger [REDACTED] told Officer ALI that did not know anything about guns he started to write the citations and begin the impound process on his vehicle. [REDACTED] was given citation [REDACTED] for his passenger not wearing a seatbelt and [REDACTED] was given an ANOV for possession of cannabis up to 15 grams.

[REDACTED] also stated that he was stopped by Officer ALI 2 days prior to the date of this incident while he had his daughter in his car for no apparent reason.
